TYPE OF PLAN

TFFR is a qualified defined benefit public pension plan covered under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. In simpler terms, TFFR is a tax-exempt pension plan where benefits are defined by state law.

North Dakota Century Code §15-39.1-35 and Title 82 of the North Dakota Administrative Code contain the actual language governing the fund.

TYPE OF PLAN (CONTINUED)

The TFFR plan is funded on an actuarial reserve basis. That is, money is invested for future retirement benefits while members are actively teaching.

Benefit funding comes from three sources:

8

TFFR REVENUE SOURCES (FY 2022-23)

Benefit funding comes from member and employer contributions and investment earnings.

You may name contingent beneficiaries, not required.

14

DIVORCE

TFFR benefits are generally considered a marital asset and subject to valuation and division in a divorce.

- Division of benefits can only occur if a Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO) is approved by the TFFR Board before its signed by the judge.
- QDRO model has been established by TFFR and specific language must be used in preparing the order.
- Former spouse (i.e., alternate payee) may only receive a lump sum payment from TFFR if you elect a refund upon termination of employment.
- Alternate payee can elect to receive a monthly benefit for life based on the accrued benefits at the time of divorce.

15

DIVORCE (CONTINUED)

Monthly benefit to the alternate payee can begin when:

- You reach normal retirement.
- You reach early retirement (age 55).
- The alternate payee reaches a certain date (must be after you reach age 55).
- You retire.

Alternate payee can begin benefits and you can continue working.

The actuarial value of the alternate payee's current and future benefits will reduce your benefit.

If TFFR is not to be divided, the divorce decree should state that you retain sole ownership of the retirement account.
